CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorised person is prohibited by law.

This is UNEVALUATED Information The SOURCE PLAULATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAILA OF COMPRET IS TENTATIVE. 25X1 1. In late August 1954,	SUBJECT Soviet Naval Vessels Observed in the Murmansk Area NO. OF PAGES AEQUIREMENT NO. RD REFERENCES This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PYALUATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TRATATIVE. (YOU REY SEE REVESSE) 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, an number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vensel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow alightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketh belt southern portion of Kola Inlet. 1. In late August 1954, an	SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PLAULATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. INFO APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR EAT SEE SEVERE) 2 1. In late August 195k, ship was in Kola Inlet, say a number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and FC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (K 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, sa large submarine with one gun forward of 25X1 the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 290 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flusheek. It had two narrow slightly vaked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. 1. The several of them towing targets. Much of the Tlying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeest over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. 1. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information The Source requirements in this server are definitive. The Available of Company is Invitable. The Available of Various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a wessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushesek. It had two marrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See settle beld southern portion of Kola Inlet. The 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. The Company is the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	COUNTRY	USSR (Arctic)	REPORT
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PLAUATIONS IN THIS SPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISA OF COUNTRY IS TRINATIVE. (FOR RIV SEE SAVESS) 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, number of small naval vessels, including MTDs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rost Shippard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeek. It had two harrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just east of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PAULATIONS IN THIS SPOOT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISA OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REY SEE REVISED.) 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, a mumber of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeek. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch belt southern portion of Kola Inlet five to ten aircraft at 25 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	SUBJECT		DATE DISTR.
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PARALELA OF CONTENT IS SETTING. THE APPARIEN OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPARIEN OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPARIEN OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPARIEN OF CONTENT IS SETTING. 2 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, a pumber of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shippard, ship and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard erm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See setch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. 4 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE PYALUATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEPIRITIVE. INE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE INVESSE) 1. In late August 1954,			NO. OF PAGES
This is UNEVALUATED Information The SOURCE FYALUATIONS IN THIS SEPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPAINSM OF COMPRET IS TENTATIVE. (MOM MAY SEE SEVERSE) 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, a summer of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. The flying field was located southeast of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1 SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	This is UNEVALUATED Information The Source Evaluations in this server are definitive. The Applaina of Content is Tentative. (FOR MAY See servesse) 1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, a number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch beld southern portion of Kola Inlet. 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25, time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. (No Apple of Content is remained.) (See Secret - US OFFICIALS ONLY) SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	DATE OF INFO.		REQUIREMENT NO. RD	25 X
1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. 25X1 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1	1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and FC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdack. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch belt) 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25, time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	PLACE ACQUIRED	•	REFERENCES
1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below southern portion of Kola Inlet. 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25X1 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard	1. In late August 1954, ship was in Kola Inlet, number of small naval vessels, including MIBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch beld southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25, time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY		This is UNEVALUATE	D Information
1. In late August 1954, number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25X1 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1	number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch belief the southern portion of Kola Inlet. 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25) Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY		THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TO		 25X1
1. In late August 1954, number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25X1 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1	number of small naval vessels, including MTBs and PC-type vessels, in Vayenga Bay (N 69-05, E 33-26). 2. In Rosta Shipyard, the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch belief the southern portion of Kola Inlet. 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25) Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY a large submarine with one gun forward of the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25X1 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25X1 Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1	2. In Rosta Shipyard, the tower and six naval units of various types in different stages of fitting out. Among them was a vessel about 250 feet in length with a sharp sheer and a flushdeck. It had two narrow slightly raked stacks set close together, one mast with a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below that a yard arm, and an open bridge with a radar screen. (See sketch below the southern portion of Kola Inlet. 3. From 26 to 28 August, MIG fighters were observable almost constantly over the southern portion of Kola Inlet. five to ten aircraft at 25 time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	numb	per of small naval vessels, including MT	Kola Inlet, Bs and PC-type vessels, in Vaye southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. The flying field was located southeast of Vayenga Bay. Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1 SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	southern portion of Kola Inlet. time, several of them towing targets. Much of the flying activity took place in the direction northwest-southeast over the inlet just west of Vayenga Bay. Vayenga Bay. 25) Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25)	the out. a fl	tower and six naval units of various ty . Among them was a vessel about 250 fee	pes in different stages of fitt t in length with a sharp sheer ked stacks set close together,	ing and one Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25X1 SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	Unidentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosta Shipyard 25) SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	sout	thern portion of Kola Inlet. e, several of them towing targets. Much the direction northwest-southeast over t	five to ten aircraft a of the flying activity took pl the inlet just west of Vayenga E	t 25X1 Lace Bay.
SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	Vay			25X1
SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY	IIni	dentified Naval Vessel Observed in Rosts	a Shipy a rd
		3.1.2			25X1
					7
	STATE X ARMY X MAVY #X AIR X FBI AEC		SECRET - US OFFICIALS	ONLY
STATE X ARMY X NAVY #X AIR X FBI AEC		T TATE V	ABMY X NAVY #X AIR X FE	1 AEC

